

Supporter's newsletter September 2007

From the General Manager:

As we move towards the final quarter of the year, and our concert on 18 November, there are also several important dates coming up in our calendar of events and we encourage you all to support them with your attendance and your encouragement of family and friends to attend also.

Vital to the orchestra's ability to afford to produce concerts next year are two fundraising drives.

The 2nd annual Stonnington Symphony and Armadale Cellars Wine and Cheese Night at the East Malvern RSL is on Friday evening 5 October. Last year's event was a great success; around 80 people enjoyed sampling a variety of wines and cheeses and purchased bottles for quaffing throughout the spring racing carnival and summer festive season. A percentage from all sales goes to the orchestra which is really wonderful.

Our new public appeal to raise funds to hire a piano for a concert in 2008 was launched at our recent August concert and we have already received several donations towards this. For purchasing a key, a chord, a scale or an octave, donors will see their name on our giant cut-out piano and at the May 2008 concert they will see the tangible outcome of their generous donations. Please see the enclosed flyer to find out how you can donate.

Finally, our AGM will take place on Monday 15 October, venue still tbc, and as always nominations for positions on the Committee of Management are invited.

And so may I take this opportunity to congratulate and thank the outgoing Committee of Management for their dedication and hard work towards ensuring the ongoing success of the Stonnington Symphony. It has been a great pleasure working with you all and I look forward to continuing to work with you in whatever capacity you are in going forward.

With best wishes,
Celia Welch

REMINDER ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING

Stonnington Symphony's AGM is your opportunity to become involved in the future direction of this great orchestra.

We encourage all players to become financial members so that there is a good core of musicians engaged in the governance of the orchestra – vital to the existence of the Stonnington Symphony Inc.

Nominations from members for positions on the Committee of Management (COM) are now open, and the current COM will be very happy to chat with you about what they do and how you can help.

If you can't attend but would like your views represented please don't hesitate to contact a current COM member via the office, and don't forget to submit your proxy voting form.

We all need to be actively involved in ensuring the future vitality of the Stonnington Symphony so that we can continue to provide quality performance opportunities for passionate orchestral musicians.

Concert review – Pictures of the sea, sounds of sunshine: Chris Martin conducts Elgar and Brahms

2.30pm Sunday 26 August 2007, Malvern Town Hall

This was a lovely performance by the Stonnington Symphony. The close relationship that has developed over the years with Conductor Christopher Martin ensured a great response from players to his repertoire choices and to working with him throughout the rehearsals. The highlight of the performance for many was Brahms' Symphony No.2, whilst Jacqueline Dark's performance of Elgar's Sea Pictures was delightful and the Cockaigne overture, also by Elgar, was a bright start to the performance. It is always disappointing for performers not to play to a full house, however the close connection to family and friends in the audience ensures a great atmosphere in the Hall.

The smallish audience really enjoyed this concert, applauding each work, the guest artists and orchestra generously throughout. Longstanding Stonnington Symphony concertgoers attended to see Chris Martin conduct a program of some of his favourite works and to celebrate his long association with the orchestra. Following the concert there were many congratulatory remarks, and another 25 new supporters have joined our mailing list.

Stonnington Symphony was delighted to welcome many guests in the audience including David Barmby from the new Melbourne Recital Centre, past and current members of the Melbourne Symphony Orchestra, and Age reviewer Clive O'Connell.

The backstage, afternoon tea and foyer areas ran very smoothly thanks to our fantastic team of volunteers which contributed to the overall success of the afternoon. Congratulations to all involved.

*Melbourne premiere

Glazounov – Concerto for Alto Saxophone and Strings

Rachmaninov – Symphony No. 2

This final concert for 2007 brings together Stonnington Symphony's Artistic Director, Benjamin Northey, with fellow saxophonist Amy Dickson in a diverse program. Opening with the Melbourne premiere of 3MBS Composer Award Winner Peter McNamara's work Dividing Ranges, this afternoon concert will delight. Also on the program is the popular Rachmaninov Symphony No. 2 which will be a highlight for the players to perform, as will the Glazounov Concerto for Alto Saxophone and Strings which showcases the qualities of this relatively modern orchestral instrument.

We hope you will join us for this wonderful concert at the beautiful Malvern Town Hall on Sunday 15 November at 2.30pm

Stonnington Symphony Raffle CAN YOU HELP?

The annual Stonnington Symphony Fundraising Raffle will again be drawn at Symphony under the Stars in 2008.

We are currently looking for donations of prizes for the raffle. If you are able to donate a prize or have a potential lead that we can follow up, please contact Celia in the office on 9510 5257 or email admin@stonningtonsymphony.org.au

Thank you!

Stonnington Symphony awarded funding through the Volunteer Small Equipment Grant scheme

In a recent letter from Peter Costello, federal member for the Stonnington area, we were advised that the Stonnington Symphony has been granted $2850 towards the cost of purchasing a multi function centre (printer/copier/fax) to assist with the production of newsletters, concert programs. This is wonderful news for the orchestra as it will enable us to produce more documents in-house (we currently outsource all of our production by necessity) and improve our capacity for more volunteers to be involved with the administration of the orchestra.

The Committee of Management and the Manager spend much time planning, writing and submitting grant applications for funding for a wide variety of projects and requirements, often with little success so it is a great achievement to have secured this funding in 2007.
